Funeral services will be Thursday, February 11, 2016 at 3:00 PM in the Union Grove United Methodist Church, Midville, GA, with Rev. Randy Carnley officiating.

Interment will follow in the Union Grove United Methodist Church Cemetery.

The family will receive friends Thursday, at the Union Grove United Methodist Church from 1:00 PM till time of service.

Pallbearers are Dr. Wesley McRae, Jerry Salter, Justin Dixon, Glenn Nasworthy, Wilson Pierce, Josh Rogers and Jeffery Burke.

Honorary Pallbearers are Georgia 4-H Camp Counselor Alumni and Fortson 4-H Center Board of Directors.

Mr. Nasworthy was born on February 26, 1987 in Augusta, GA and lived most of his life in Emanuel County. Allen graduated Swainsboro High School in 2005 with numerous honors, was also President of SHS FFA, received the Houston Scholarship, attended ABAC (Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College), later transferring to UGA (University of Georgia) graduating in 2009 with dual degrees in Animal Science and Agricultural Education, and completed his Masters in Agricultural Leadership. He taught at Locust Grove High School for two years, receiving the Teacher Of The Year Award his first year teaching, was a 4-H Camp Counselor for many years, and was Director of Fortson 4-H Center since 2011. During his tenure at Camp Fortson Allen was instrumental in starting a petting zoo, for the children, in the Atlanta area, was the BLS instructor where he taught camp counselors lifeguarding and CPR. Allen truly had 4-H running through his blood, loved being a part of such a great organization and loved animals especially horses as this was an activity he enjoyed with his family. He was a member of the Union Grove United Methodist Church and was preceded in death by his maternal grandfather Jimmy Oglesby and paternal grandparents Luther "Junior" and Virginia Nasworthy and Dave and Mary Carr.

Survivors include:

Mother: Pam Carr (Chris) of Midville, GA

Father: Lyn Nasworthy (Reba Tankersley) of Swainsboro,
