

Obituary

Born: Friday, May 29, 1970

Died: Wednesday, January 8, 2020

Durden-Hudson Funeral Directors announces the death of Mrs. Jennifer Meinhardt, age 49, of Statesboro, GA, on Wednesday, January 8, 2020, at Ogeechee Area Hospice.

Memorial Services will be held on Friday, January 10, 2020 at 1:00pm at Durden-Hudson Funeral Directors, Peebles-Curry Memorial Chapel with Rev. Kenny Green officiating.

The family will receive friends at the Peebles-Curry Memorial Chapel one hour prior to the service.

Honorary Escorts will be Breast Cancer Survivors

Born in Swainsboro on May 29, 1970, Mrs. Meinhardt was the daughter of Jimmy and Sylvia Holmes Wedincamp, Sr.

She graduated from ECI in 1988 and due to her love of art she continued her education and earned a Bachelors' Degree in art from Georgia Southern. One time, she won a Purchase Prize in Art from East Georgia State College. Jennifer was involved in various Breast Cancer Associations; from awareness to fundraisers and working with survivors groups. Jennifer had a devoted four-legged companion named Captain who accompanied her everywhere; they shared an exceptional bond and many adventures. She enjoyed camping on Cumberland, shark tooth and seashell hunting and salt water fishing. Jennifer was a certified scuba diver. Diving and spending time at the coast were enjoyable activities for much of the family. Jennifer had a heart for giving and helping people. She volunteered with multiple charities and foundations, most notably with Fostering Bulloch and Broken Shackle Ranch in Bulloch County. She was preceded in death by her parents.

Survivors Include:

Her Husband of seven years: Kenneth Meinhardt, II. of Statesboro, GA

Her Daughters: Ceejae Long (Garth) of Statesboro, GA, Coty Holloway (Dylan) of Metter, GA, Mason McKenley Meinhardt of Statesboro, GA, and Christi Gibson of Richmond Hill, GA

Her Son: Allen Garrett and family of West Virginia.
